
MS21400

PSYCHOLOGUE DU PERSONNEL

Niveau 7

Responsabilité Hiérarchique

Staff Psycho-social Support Activity Manager/Staff Health Responsible/ Project Medical Referent

Responsabilité Fonctionnelle

Staff Psycho-social Support Activity Manager / Staff Health Responsible/ Project Medical Referent / Medical Coordinator/ PSCU OC

Domaine Professionnel

Paramedical

But principal

Providing psychological support to staff according to MSF principles, standards and procedures, in order to improve the staff well being at work.

Responsabilités

- Carrying out psycho-education sessions to raise awareness amongst staff about mental health and well being at work
- Providing individual psychological support to staff according to MSF protocols in order to improve their mental health condition
- Providing group psycho-social support to staff according to MSF protocols in order to improve their mental health condition
- Provide trainings to staff on various MHPSS topics relevant to increase understanding of staff psychosocial support needs and coping mechanisms
- Mapping the external Mental health resources for referral
- Refer staff to other professionals when needed: staff health responsible, GP, psychotherapist, psychiatrist
- Ensuring that all staff information is kept confidential.
- Collecting and monitoring data about individual and group activities and reporting to PMR/medical coordinator/ staff health responsible
- Collaborating with other staff health profiles according to needs + informing on individual cases needing specialized care.
- When relevant, share global issues of the staff needing attention with coordination team
- Take active part in trainings, supervisions/interventions with other staff support positions. Discuss difficulties and problems in counselling with supervisor.

Éducation

Master's Degree in Clinical Psychology (5 years)

Expérience

- Essential: 2 years' experience, minimum, as a Psychologist
 - Desirable: Previous experience with MSF or other NGO's in developing countries
-
-

Generated at 2024-11-23 12:23:33 +0000

© 2024 MSF International